ABOUT HOTEL

The Angler's Boutique Resort is an exceptional example of a location that is only two blocks from the beach where guests can enjoy the energy of Miami's South Beach just steps from the tranquility of The Angler's.

The Angler's Boutique Resort offers a collection of 45 suites and villas that offer a variety of vistas, ranging from private terraces to lush gardens. The first two buildings were originally built in the 1930s by architect Henry Maloney, and frequented by Ernest Hemingway. Since then The Angler's has been meticulously brought back to its magnificent splendor, a true homage to the past and the future. With respect to the design of the famed deco period, architects Ralph Choeff and Allan T. Shulman have created two new buildings that bring The Angler's experience to life.
