SGGP to conduct golf summit, membership drive

Staff report
Nov 6, 2016

South Georgia Golf Promotions tournament director John Ungar invites male and female golfers, 21 years and older, to a golf summit and membership drive Wednesday at 7 p.m. at the Holiday Inn & Conference Center in Valdosta. Registration is required by contacting South Georgia Golf Promotions at 614-441-3965 or e-mail johnungar@yahoo.com.

Keeping with a vision statement of a golf organization that promotes the game of golf and player camaraderie through memberships and competitions that provide enjoyment and allows golfers to compete equally and fairly based on handicaps and skills, on quality golf courses at a price they expect to pay while supporting local communities, golf courses, businesses and charities.

The organizational goal is to improve communication and public awareness that the SGGP is an active organization in the community and provides alternative memberships available through South Georgia Golf Promotions allowing them to continue playing the game of golf. Based on their feedback we want to provide them a quality pay as you play membership that will meet and accommodate their expectations, budgets schedules, costs, quality of courses, and competitions.

Annual membership is $60 with a reciprocal membership to USA Golf Promotions and the Hoot-Owl Amateur Tour. A special offer of $50 is available to golfers who join up from Nov. 9 through Dec. 31. There is no initiation fee, monthly dues, food and beverage charges or year-end assessment fees.

It is a pay as you play membership open to male and female golfers 21 years old and older. As a member you will receive either a SGGP, USA Golf Promotions or Hoot-Owl Amateur Tour golf shirt, USA Golf hat, Titleist golf balls and yearly subscription to Golf Magazine and South Georgia Golfer. More than 200 competitions consisting of nine holes, 18 holes or 36 holes with flexible tee times based on golfer's schedules are conducted on week days and weekends locally. Three-day, two-night getaways are scheduled for Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Ohio, South Carolina and Tennessee.

Golfers who join will be entered into a drawing for a Georgia State Park Golf Pass for 2017 to three State Park Golf Courses managed by Coral Hospitality. A one-year South Georgia Golf Promotions Membership also nets 12 paid entry fees to Hoot-Owl Amateur Tour events.

Golfers who are not able to attend the event but would like to receive additional information or membership application may contact South Georgia Golf Promotions at 614-441-3965 or e-mail johnungar@yahoo.com
