

5 Easy Georgia Waterfall Hikes Your Family Will Love

TOPICS: Hiking Outdoor Adventures Waterfall

LAST UPDATED: 02/2/2017

I'm to share my latest Explore Georgia article: 5 Easy Waterfall Hikes for Georgia Families! Please take a look. If you are seeking more information on each one, follow these links to get the scoop!

Anna Ruby Falls

The falls are majestic, and the walk is short and easy. You simply cannot visit Helen without taking in this natural beauty. [\[Read more...\]](#)

Amicalola Falls

Ask me the “must-see” attraction in my neck of the woods, and I’ll tell you it’s Amicalola Falls. Georgia’s tallest waterfall! [\[Read more...\]](#)

Fall Branch Falls

Fall Branch Falls is a fun hike with the kids. We went in spring after visiting Lilly Pad Village, which is just right down the road. [\[Read more...\]](#)

Helton Creek Falls

Take a side trip from Vogel to nearby Helton Creek Falls. What beautiful falls for such a short hike! They are less than a 1/4 mile from the parking lot. [\[Read more...\]](#)

High Shoals Falls

Until just this week, I only knew of the High Shoals Falls near Helen. That is, until my friend posted pictures of her kids playing in the waterfall...in Dallas! [\[Read more...\]](#)

Need more? See all of the waterfalls at Georgia State Parks.