ATLANTA - Amicalola Falls State Park Sends Guests on Aerial Adventure:

It's already one of Georgia's most loved and visited state parks, and now guests to Amicalola Falls State Park in Dawsonville have a thrilling new reason to plan a visit.

The new Aerial Adventure Park at Amicalola Falls State Park & Lodge officially opened Thursday, September 15, with a ribbon-cutting ceremony and tour of the attraction. Built by American Adventure Park Systems, the Aerial Adventure Park includes 11 zip lines and three suspension bridges, giving visitors breathtaking views of the state park.

Good Day Atlanta's Paul Milliken spent the morning up in the trees, getting a first-hand look at this exciting new addition to North Georgia.
