The Bradenton, Fla., property saw $750,000 in renovations to its 22,000-sq. ft. clubhouse, including updates to the lobby, restaurant, bar, community room, and pro shop. The project is part of an overall $1.5 million investment at the property since CH6 Rosedale acquired it in October 2015.

The second phase of the improvement project at Rosedale Golf & Country Club in Bradenton, Fla., has been completed. Updates made during this recent phase, which represented a $750,000 investment, include a full interior renovation and design enhancements at the 22,000-sq. ft. clubhouse including the lobby, restaurant, bar, community room and pro shop.

More than 500 members were invited to experience the new contemporary coastal design during a ribbon-cutting celebration on September 30.

“Rosedale Golf & Country Club is truly an incredible country club and we are thrilled to be able to provide our members and guests with an exceptional club centerpiece to socialize, dine and celebrate,” said Christopher Schaeffer, President of operator Coral Hospitality. “We were privileged to partner with a world-renowned designer, Clive Daniel Hospitality, to transform Rosedale’s clubhouse with a clean, transitional design.”

The newly refreshed clubhouse incorporates natural elements that bridge the gap between the club’s indoor and outdoor spaces. A grand entrance at the main lobby features white stone walls, sleek floor and wall coverings, fresh new art, welcoming furniture, lustrous lighting and more. A new 100-inch-wide, wall-hung fireplace in the bar is complemented by a matching 60” wall-hung fireplace in the main dining room. A 72” round contemporary crystal chandelier illuminates the new custom-designed carpet featuring a floral motif, and new tables, chairs and tableware.

This second phase of renovations represents part of an overall $1.5 million investment at the property since CH6 Rosedale acquired it in October 2015.

Rosedale Golf & Country Club features a par 72 course and a clubhouse with a bistro patio, Junior Olympic-sized swimming pool, five lighted Har-Tru tennis courts, a well-appointed fitness center, and an array of exceptional activities.
