

Coral Hospitality takes over Jacaranda West

October 3, 2016

By Jack Crittenden

Coral Hospitality, a hospitality management and investment company, will take over management of Jacaranda West Country Club in Venice, Fla. GF-Jacaranda, LLC recently acquired the course and hired Coral Hospitality.

"We are delighted to have been selected to manage Jacaranda West Country Club and look forward to helping this already outstanding club evolve to the next level for its members and guests," said Lee Weeks, CEO of Coral Hospitality. "By enhancing the golf course conditions and adding other desirable offerings, the club will prove attractive to current and future members, as well as the local community." Jacaranda West Country Club features a par 72 golf course, eight tennis courts and expansive club house with full-service restaurant and banquet facilities.

Coral Hospitality recently accepted the Naples Daily News 2016 SW Florida Choice Award for Best Public Golf Course on behalf of ArrowHead Golf Club, where they implemented new offerings and expanded the club's food and beverage services, enhancing the overall guest experience.

[World Golf Report
Management](#)