Jimmy Buffett surprises the new employees at Margaritaville Hollywood Beach Resort

PHOTO RELEASE – Hollywood, Fla. – September 9, 2015 – Every day holds a new surprise and on Thursday, September 3 in Hollywood, Florida, Jimmy Buffett himself popped up at the new-build Margaritaville Hollywood Beach Resort. After a walk through Destination Paradise, Buffett appeared at what was dubbed a 'Team Member Training,' creating buzz amongst several hundred new employees as they prepare for the resort's upcoming opening.

Kicking off his shoes in true Margaritaville style, Buffett spoke with employees about the brand and shared his excitement about the Margaritaville Hollywood Beach Resort project.

When it opens, the 17-story, 349-room resort will offer an authentic, "no worries" tropical vibe inspired by Buffett's lyrics and the Margaritaville lifestyle. The property will feature multiple bar and restaurant concepts, a full-service St. Somewhere Spa, 30,000 square-feet of flexible function space, an extensive on-site water recreation area with three pools, a FlowRider® Double and several live entertainment venues.
