Coral Hospitality Appoints Brian J. Boeling, PGA, Director of Golf for Three South Georgia Courses

Boeling to Oversee Georgia Veterans at Lake Blackshear Resort & Golf Club; Wallace Adams Golf Course at Little Ocmulgee, Helena; & Meadow Links Golf Course at George T. Bagby, Fort Gaines

Naples, FL/South Georgia – July 17, 2013 – Coral Hospitality, the management company appointed by the state of Georgia to oversee operations at Georgia Veterans Golf Club at Lake Blackshear Resort; the Wallace Adams Golf Course at Little Ocmulgee, Helena; and the Meadow Links Golf Course at George T. Bagby, Fort Gaines, has named Brian J. Boeling, PGA, as Director of Golf operations for all three South Georgia Courses.

Mr. Boeling joins Coral Hospitality from Top of the World Communities in Ocala, FL where he managed a 36-hole private course and an 18-hole semi-private course within a 12,000 unit residential community. He brings more than 20 years of golf management experience and has also served as the General Manager of the Yacht & Country Club in Stuart, FL, and the Ridgewood Lakes Golf & Country Club in Davenport, FL. He began his career as a golf pro at Palmetto Dunes in Hilton Head Island, SC.

Mr. Boeling holds a B.A. in Business Administration from the University of Houston; he is a Life Member A4 Director of Golf with the PGA, and a Nike Advisory Staff Member. He can be reached at: bboeling@lakeblackshearresort.com or 229-276-2377.

“We are pleased to welcome Brian to our team,” said Lee Weeks, CEO of Coral Hospitality. “His wealth of experience in managing resort courses will be a true asset to the South Georgia courses. We look forward to his direction and help in making these great facilities even better and more fun and challenging to play,” added Weeks.

About the Courses

Georgia Veterans rests quietly on the shores of Lake Blackshear adjacent to Lake Blackshear Resort. Designed by Denis Griffiths this course was awarded 4 stars by Golf Digest. The challenging layout features mounds, water and plenty of sand to test your game. For tee times and reservations: 877-736-8897

Wallace Adams Golf Course at Little Ocmulgee is considered one of the best courses in south Georgia. Loblolly pines, magnolias and willows line the Bermuda fairways. The on-site 60-room lodge and restaurant make this a true stay and play destination. For tee times and reservations: 888-882-8906.

Meadow Links Golf Course is named the “6th best affordable public course” in the nation by Golf Digest. The Willard Byrd links-style design weaves through gently rolling countryside. The 60-room lodge at George T. Bagby Park offers great stay and play packages. For tee times and reservations: 877-591-5574
